Itinerary for Paris du Jour
"Paris City and French Countryside Tour"
June 11 ~ June 18, 2018

All meals with an * are included in the tour price.

Monday, June 11 (Day 1)

- Departure from USA.
- Fly overnight to Paris.

Tuesday, June 12 (Day 2)

- Arrival day in Paris.
- After clearing customs and claiming your luggage, travel by reserved shuttle service to the hotel.
- Welcome Lunch*.
Short Paris Walk welcomes you to the sights, architecture and charming streets of your Paris neighborhood. Take some time to relax at the hotel before your very enjoyable Paris Welcome Dinner*.

Wednesday, June 13 (Day 3)

- Breakfast* at the hotel.
- Private guided museum tour. Explore the beautiful Musée Orsay with our exceptional guide.
- Free Afternoon. Explore other items on your Paris list or enjoy shopping for Paris treasures.
- Dinner* at a lovely Paris home. Our host was born and raised in the wine region of Bordeaux. She is expertly trained in wine culture and is the creator of the wine-appreciation business called "Do You Speak Wine?". Enjoy delicious cuisine beautifully presented. Savor her selections of fine wines and have fun as she leads us through the process of wine tasting. Dinner*

Thursday, June 14 (Day 4)

- Breakfast* at hotel.
- Morning in Paris! Visit a typical neighborhood market and shop with the locals! Continue the morning with a visit to the gold domed church of Les Invalides, a Paris landmark and the tomb of Napoleon I. Located in the complex that was built by Louis XIV as a military hospital, the church is an architectural masterpiece.
- Lunch
- Afternoon program led by art historian Dr. Kelly Spearman. The Île de la Cité is the island that sits between and right and left banks of the river Seine. It is home to the Cathedral of Notre Dame and the origin of the City of Paris. Enjoy a walk and discover how Paris grew from the home of an ancient tribe to become the royal residence of kings.
- Evening free
- Option: Opportunity to enjoy an exciting evening at the lovely venue of Bel Canto for delicious dinner and musical entertainment of "Opera at Your Table".

Friday, June 15 (Day 5)

- Breakfast* at hotel.
- Spend the day in the Normandy countryside. Travel by train along the banks of the Seine to Vernon situated in the beautiful region of Normandy. We will arrive at Giverny to visit Monet's garden and home. Experience the colorful garden designed by Monet himself. The Japanese Bridge made famous in many Monet paintings beckons us to spend time in the magical garden before we tour the interior of Monet's home. Shop in the gift shop that was the original art studio of Monet. Have lunch in a garden setting before our return to the Vernon train station. Next stop is the 11th century village of Pont de l'Arche. Experience French hospitality at its very best! Our hosts will welcome us to their lovely home and offer dinner*, fine wine and great company in this historic country estate. Learn the history of La Chasse – 'the hunt' – and listen as our host presents the customs and traditional music involved in the sport of hunting. At the end of this very memorable day, return to Paris by train.

Saturday, June 16 (Day 6)

Breakfast* at hotel.

- Day trip to the city of Chartres. Enjoy a one-hour train ride to this medieval city best known for the magnificent Cathédrale de Notre-Dame. Visit the cathedral and see the beautiful stained glass and stunning architecture.
- Lunch and a walk through this charming city center before return train to Paris.
- Dinner* Cruise on the river Seine. Paris is known as the "City of Light"! Enjoy delicious cuisine, wine and delightful musical entertainment aboard Bateaux Parisiens and glide under the beautifully lighted bridges of the river Seine.

Sunday, June 17 (Day 7)

- Breakfast* at hotel.
- Free Day in Paris! Spend your day exploring Paris sights. Perhaps take time to enjoy a stop in a public garden, enjoy a walk along the Seine, discover the area of Montmartre or stroll along the famous Avenue des Champs –Elysees.
- Enjoy a group dinner* and share memories of a fabulous week in Paris and its beautiful countryside.

Tuesday, June 18 (Day 8)

Paris Tips for Additional Days

Many clients plan to add an extra day or two to their Paris stay. After your Paris du Jour tour, you will feel right at home in Paris. Two additional nights are available for booking before the planned arrival date of June 12 and following the scheduled departure date of June 18. You might want to spend some extra time shopping or visiting other special highlights on your own personal Paris agenda. This extra hotel booking must be requested at the time of your tour reservation. Your costs for the extra nights, breakfasts or any other services you incur must be paid directly to the hotel at the time of your checkout.

Walking Required!

Please remember to bring comfortable walking shoes. The best way to see Paris is on foot. The tour involves a great deal of walking each day. We use the Paris Métro for our transportation to and from many planned activities. The Paris Métro is the city's underground public transportation system. Therefore, there are lots of steps/stairs involved. We ask that you carefully review the itinerary to decide if the planned daily activities are a good fit for you. Please refer to our website for comments from previous Paris du Jour participants. Paris du Jour looks forward to welcoming you to Paris. Join us!
